

Advisory Council

Purpose

The Advisory Council will be composed of citizens at large and organization who have interest in the 250th commemoration and have knowledge and expertise of history, civics, humanities, and other fields related to the Semiquincentennial. These individuals will support and advise the members of the America 250 | CT Commission and assist in achieving its goals.

Roles and Responsibilities

Advisory council members will support the mission of the Commission in one of three capacities:

Advisors

Advisors will support the work of the Commission by working with the America 250 | CT Commission subcommittees, either as a subcommittee member or in a consulting capacity.

Subcommittees of the America 250 | CT Commission are:

- Community & Organizational Engagement
- Education
- Governance
- IDEA (Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access)
- Tourism & Marketing

Ambassadors

Advisory Council Ambassadors will assist in providing financial resources for the Commission, identifying potential sponsoring organizations and individuals for projects and initiatives of the commemoration, and raising awareness of the Commission and its efforts. The Committee will play a critical role in helping the Commission achieve and maintain its financial goals to serve as a leader for Connecticut's commemoration initiatives.

Partners

Advisory Council Partners are comprised of arts, culture, and tourism organizations throughout Connecticut. The Commission will bring together partners to make the connections that will bring to life the four America 250 | CT themes, magnifying important stories and enhancing community support.
